

A HISTORY
OF THE
WAUGHS

Part 2

This section of the book is about “Aussie” William Waugh 1808-1854

It is the marriage of William to Francis Thorpe that gives the family the connection with John Oxley the Surveyor General of NSW.

The term “Aussie” has been applied to his name and to “Aussie” Alexander Waugh 1814-1894 was applied by Ron Main to differentiate them from so many others in the family history with names William and Alexander. These two members of the family are ones who came to Australia to give the many descendants whom this book is about. There is no suggestion and it should be made clear that the “Aussie” term was not associated with either of them in their life times.

“Aussie” William Waugh 1808-1854

William was the eighth of nine children of Thomas Waugh 1750-1820 and Isabella Crosbie.

The following description of William comes from his son, Thomas's, granddaughter, Pat Grinter. The quote is from a talk given by Pat at The Waugh family reunion at Tenterfield in 1996. The full extent of the notes are in Appendix 2.

William was a remarkably well built man, nearly six feet tall and he was well known and respected by many in the community. He smoked a pipe. (As a child growing up at "Laretburn" I remember seeing a photo or painting of a very good looking man holding a pipe and his dog was beside him. It must have been William because Henry Waugh from Grafton told me his father, Gilbert Waugh wanted to have his photo taken with his dog because Gilbert's father and grandfather had done so.) William was a tenant farmer on land purchased by John Wighton at Nelsons Plains in 1832. Many other Scottish settlers farmed in the area. William employed his own men and he grew wheat. On 2nd January 1854 he was stabbed by one of the men in his employ and although William lingered for three weeks he died from these wounds on Saturday 21st January 1854 aged 46 years, leaving Frances and her five children aged from five to fifteen years to mourn him. William was buried in the Hinton Cemetery (now called the Hinton Pioneer Cemetery) on the 24th January 1854. Rev. Robert Blain conducted the funeral service. His estate was sworn at seven hundred pounds for Probate purposes, his last will having been signed on 4th January 1854.

ACCOUNT OF THE MURDER OF WILLIAM WAUGH 1808-1854

The following is an account of the murder of William Waugh as reported in the Newcastle newspapers in 1854.

William Waugh was attacked near his property by one of the men in his employ on Monday 2nd January 1854. He died from those wounds on Saturday 21st January.

From the Maitland Mercury:

STABBING - SERIOUS INJURY TO MR WILLIAM WAUGH - Saturday January 7th 1854.

Many of our readers will hear with regret Mr William Waugh, of Nelson's Plains, now lies dangerously ill from the effects of stabs inflicted by John Blaney, a man in his employment as a farm labourer. It appears from the information that has reached us that on Monday last, the 2nd instant, Mr Waugh was anxious to have his wheat harvesting proceeded with and refused to permit Blaney to go to Raymond Terrace. Blaney, however, persisted in having a holiday and went.

In the evening about eight o'clock Mr Waugh was proceeding with John Allen, another of his men, to visit a neighbouring family in distress, when they met Blaney returning and in a state of intoxication.

Some unfriendly words passing, Blaney and Allen got into a quarrel and exchanged blows. Mr Waugh interfered, endeavouring to separate them, when Blaney turned on him and with a knife stabbed him twice in the region of the stomach and twice cut him severely under or on the knee. Mr Waugh was as soon as possible removed home and Dr Cadell sent for and that gentleman and Dr Brown have since been in daily attendance; but so dangerous a state did they find Mr Waugh in that they have interdicted any noise or quick movements, and the shirt that Mr Waugh had on at the time, covered with blood, had not been removed.

Mr Waugh's deposition has been taken by Mr Windeyer, Blaney being in custody; and yet it remains doubtful whether Mr Waugh will recover.

In the midst of the distress occasioned by this unhappy occurrence, one gratifying testimony has been given of the high esteem in which Mr Waugh is held in his own neighbourhood; his neighbours have voluntarily come in from around and have completely finished and secured his wheat harvest.

DEATH OF MR WAUGH - Wednesday January 25th 1854

On Saturday last, 21st January, Mr Waugh died of his wounds after lingering since 2nd January. On Monday an inquest was held on the body by Mr Parker, when the jury returned a verdict of wilful murder against John Blaney and they found Charles Blaney, his son, guilty as an accessory. A report of the particulars given in evidence at the inquest shall appear in our next publication.

THE MURDER OF MR WAUGH - 28th January 1854

On Monday last, the 23rd January, the Coroner, Mr Parker held an inquest on the body of Mr William Waugh of Nelson's Plains. The persons accused of causing his death, John Blaney and Charles Blaney, father and son, were present in custody.

Mr Waugh, who was a farmer, 46 years of age, a remarkably fine strong built man, nearly six feet high, has resided many years in this district and was well known and highly respected. Among other men in his employment during the recent harvest were John Blaney, Charles Blaney, John Allen and others.

John Blaney, who, with his wife and family, arrived in the Colony some few months since as immigrants, appears to have always manifested an insubordinate spirit, was stating so in declaration after being wounded. Of Charles Blaney, Mr Waugh always spoke highly.

On the morning of Monday the 2nd January, Mr Waugh was very anxious to get his wheat harvest, safely carted and stacked during that day and learning that John Blaney intended going to the Raymond Terrace races he remonstrated with him and directed him not to leave the farm. Blaney was greatly excited in manner and used very impertinent language, calling him a liar and behaving in a manner that made Mr Waugh think he wanted him to strike him. Mr Waugh, however, refrained from doing so. Blaney, after vainly trying to induce his son Charles to leave work, left the farm and went to Raymond Terrace. There by the evening he had become under the influence of liquor and was abusive but was not intoxicated.

A road leads in almost a straight line from Mr Waugh's house towards Raymond Terrace, having a shallow drain or water table on each side. Just off this road were the huts occupied by Blaney and Allen, Blaney's hut being 80 yards from Mr Waugh's house and Allen's hut 240 yards from Blaney's and 320 yards from Mr Waugh's. The other farm huts were scattered about the farm.

A neighbouring family being in distress from a family loss, Mrs Waugh spent part of that day there and after eight o'clock in the evening Mr Waugh and John Allen left Mr Waugh's together to go to this neighbouring house. Previous to this, Mr Waugh had been paying the harvest labourers, Mr Allen among them.

About eight o'clock that evening John Blaney, accompanied by his little daughter, seven years old, called at Mrs Allen's and asked if her husband was in. When told that he and the other men had gone to Mr Waugh's to settle for the wheat he said, after his daughter had a drink of water, "Goodnight, if I meet them I will call in to talk to them for I have had a glass too much today, so you may pin your door and go to bed". Blaney had always been friendly with her husband nor did she observe anything to make her anxious.

A few minutes after this John Blaney and his little girl met Mr Waugh and Allen on the road, the spot being described as 100 yards from Blaney's hut and therefore about 140 yards from Allen's. The night was closing in and rapidly becoming very dark, the moon being only two or three days old. Blaney called out to know where they were going, and Mr Waugh replying with a remonstrance in his leaving the wheat field to go to Raymond Terrace races, Blaney replied, "What have I to do with your wheat carting?" and he added "I understand, Mr Waugh, you are going to summon me to court; I am able to meet you at court or at any other place you think proper, or now, big as you are, the pair of you". With these words Blaney struck Allen, who returned the blow and they fought. Mr Waugh got between them trying to part them, and caught hold of Blaney to stop him striking Allen.

Some obscurity seems to rest over the struggle that now took place, but Allen, in answer to a question from Blaney, stated that Mr Waugh, while holding Blaney called out such words as "hit him, John". However that may be, Blaney was knocked down by Allen and he immediately called out to his son Charles to come to his assistance, using some such expression as "Waugh and Allen are murdering me" and he repeated some such statement as soon as his son Charles Blaney ran up. At the time Charles Blaney reached the spot, Blaney, Allen and Waugh were all struggling or scuffling together and Charles Blaney immediately, on hearing his father say "Waugh and Allen are pitching into me" seized hold of Allen and forcibly kept him apart from his father and Mr Waugh. Two struggles were now proceeding; one between John Blaney and Mr Waugh and the other between Charles Blaney and Allen; Charles Blaney throwing Allen and resolutely preventing him from joining the others, saying "Be quiet. If Mr Waugh has been pitching into my father, let the old man have a fair play." He did not, however, strike

Allen. A very short time had elapsed when Mr Waugh called out "John Allen and Charles Blaney come to me, for Blaney has stabbed me", and at the same time Blaney called his son "Charles, come away, that will do".

Allen ran to Mr Waugh and found him lying on his back, his head in the waterway, or drain by the road, and in answer to his enquiries, Mr Waugh said he was a dead man.

John Blaney was standing close by, but he said nothing and did nothing to assist Mr Waugh up or to take him home; but after a direct appeal to Charles Blaney for help had been made by Mr Waugh, Charles Blaney helped Allen raise him up, and to carry him home, and Charles Blaney subsequently went with another man, Lebbens Laybutt, for a Doctor, telling Laybutt, and also Mrs Allen, that Mr Waugh had been injured by falling on a stump in a scuffle.

The above is Allen's account of the occurrence, Allen adding that he did not see Mr Waugh strike a blow.

Mr Waugh, in his dying declaration, made on the 3rd January, in the presence of the prisoners, before Mr A. Windeyer JP thus related the matter after mentioning his meeting Blaney - "I spoke quietly with him (John Blaney) about leaving his work and he replied improperly that he was not afraid of me or anyone else. He struck Allen and Allen had a scuffle with him. I endeavoured to get between them. John Blaney called for his son Charles who immediately ran up and commenced an attack on Allen. At this period I received the stabs. I was not aware that Charles Blaney was near; he was engaged scuffling with Allen. My first knowledge of the injury was feeling the blood trickling from me, and here I lost consciousness of all that passed after."

Mr Waugh, being much exhausted, some particulars previously mentioned by him in conversation were not then committed to writing but the next day the following addition was made to his dying declaration, again before Mr Windeyer: "I am conscious it was a planned thing. In the morning he behaved badly, while I and the men were making the floor of the stack; did all he could to provoke me; even called me a liar; and skipped about like a mountebank, in great excitement. And in the evening, he commenced on John Allen to gain his opportunity of injuring me. It was a scuffle, I though nothing of him and could have knocked the heads off half a dozen like him together, but I had no thought of a weapon".

In answer to questions from Mr Windeyer, Mr Waugh replied that he did not strike Blaney on either occasion, but that in the evening he might have pushed him to separate him from Allen. And that he did not know who struck first, Allen or Blaney.

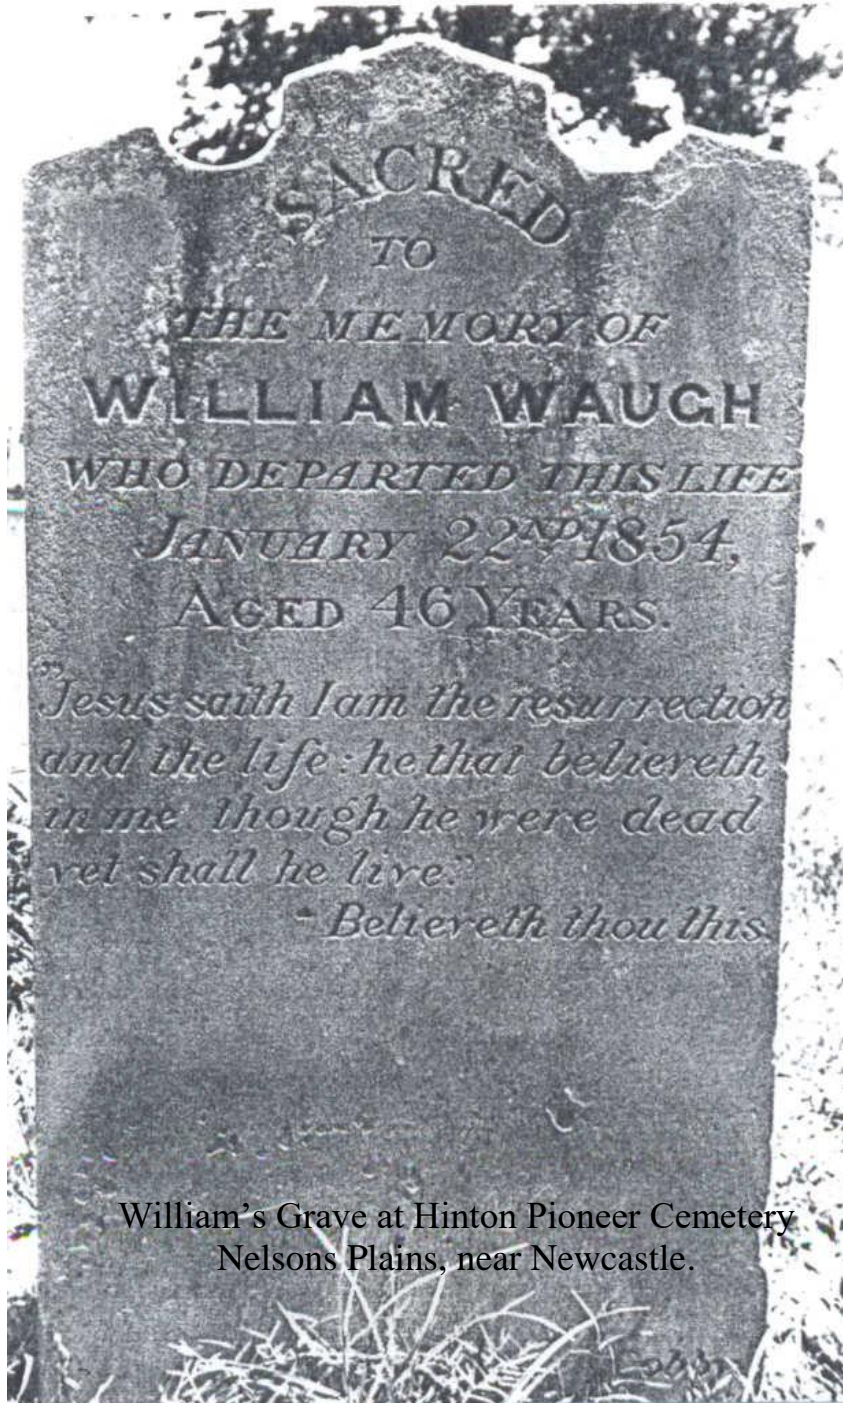

The prisoners themselves, when asked for their defence, said Mr Waugh struck the first blow, and John Blaney called the only other witness of the occurrence, his little daughter who proved to be not capable of being sworn but who said she saw John Allen take off his cap and knock her father down with it and his hand, who then ran home crying to her mother.

After Mr Waugh was taken home, Mrs Waugh was sent for and Dr Cadell. Every endeavour was made to save his life but after lingering for three weeks he died on Saturday night last.

On making a post mortem examination Dr Cadell found three incised wounds; the highest and fatal one had penetrated into the cavity of the chest, entering on the right of the breastbone which was slightly broken; the right lung was half collapsed but its substance healthy, and Dr Cadell had considered from the symptoms during life that the lung had been penetrated. This wound was three quarters of an inch long on the left side near the region of the stomach penetrating two inches but not into the cavity of the abdomen. All the other important organs were healthy as was also the brain.

William's Grave at Hinton Pioneer Cemetery

The first wound was the cause of death, and it, and the other wounds, were according to Dr Cadell's belief, inflicted by a narrow knife or other cutting instrument.

When apprehended in their hut early on the morning of the 3rd January, a small knife was found in Charles Blaney's pocket, but none on John Blaney. Some blood was subsequently found on John Blaney's shirt.

The jury returned the following verdict: "We find John Blaney guilty of wilful murder, and we find his son Charles Blaney guilty as an accessory". They were both committed by the Coroner for trial.

MAITLAND CRIMINAL COURT -
Saturday February 25th 1854
Before his Honour Mr Justice Dickinson.

John Blaney and Charles Blaney were indicted for the murder of William Waugh at Nelson's Plains of the 2nd January 1854.

Having heard the evidence of John Allen, a tenant of the late Mr Waugh and after his Honour's direction, the jury immediately acquitted and discharged Charles Blaney, aged eighteen years, son of John Blaney. The evidence given was similar to that at the inquest and is recorded at length in the newspaper. In examination, John Allen admitted that he had two or three rums with Mr Waugh about 4 o'clock in the afternoon before proceeding with the harvest. When they left home about 8 pm to go to a neighbouring farm Mr Waugh was carrying only his pipe, having called at Blaney's hut for a light. He did not have a knife. This was confirmed by Mrs Blaney.

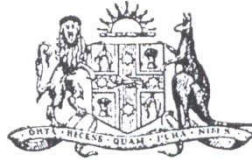

Evidence was taken from others including Mr A. Windeyer, Dr Cadell, Frances Waugh and the prisoner John Blaney. Robert Thomson, farmer, said he had known the prisoner, John Blaney, some twenty years in Ireland, and spoke of his good character. His Honour directed the jury at length. The jury returned for a few minutes and returned a verdict of guilty of manslaughter. John Blaney was sentenced to three years imprisonment in Maitland Gaol.

William Waugh married Frances Thorpe the daughter of John Oxley in 1837. The story of Frances and her sister Jeannette (Jennet on her baptism certificate) bring an historical figure into the family history and make for an interesting diversion for a few moments from the direct Waugh line.

Charlotte Thorpe 1794-1928 the mother of Frances and Jeannette was a convict. She was held at Middlesex Gaol delivery and sentenced on 19.2.1812 for seven years, she was transported on the ship "Minsrel" to Australia.

The following comes from Appendix 2

Frances was born in Sydney on 19th January 1815 to John Oxley and Charlotte Thorpe. An elder sister, Jeanette, was born on Th July 1813 and both babies were baptized at St. Phillip's Church, Sydney- Jeanette on 25th July 1813 and Frances on 12th February 1815. John Oxley had arrived on "The Minstrel" on 25th October 1812 to take up duties as Surveyor General. Charlotte Jane Thorpe also arrived on "The Minstrel" but as a convict transported for larceny.

John Oxley 1783-1828
Surveyor-General NSW

She was assigned to John Oxley but there was no formal marriage. In 1818, following her pardon, Charlotte married John Anderson at St. Phillip's Church, Sydney on 28th May and John Oxley appears to have undertaken the upbringing of his two daughters. On 31st October 1821 he married Emma Norton and it is interesting to note that both Charlotte and John Oxley were married to their respective spouses by "Special License"

When Jeanette and Frances were of a suitable age, probably in 1823 (the 1822 census taken in September shows Jeanette was at "Kirkham" with John and Emma Oxley) they were sent to England to John Oxley's family to be educated. They stayed with Lady Molesworth, Oxley's grandmother as Oxley's mother had died when he was twelve. Lady Molesworth looked after some of the Oxley children including Isabella the sister. Imagine how Jeanette and Frances must have felt going across the sea to a great grandmother they had never met! In February 1828 they returned to Australia on board the "Cape Packet" with Isabella Oxley who had married Captain Francis Dixon. Three months after they returned, John Oxley died on 26th May 1828 at the age of forty five years. It is not known whether the girls ever visited "Kirkham" again before his death, but it is known they made their home with Isabella Dixon at Parramatta.( Charlotte Thorpe / Anderson was buried in Sydney on 25th November 1828). Later Isabella had a school for young ladies in Park Street, Sydney so between that and their education in England, Jeanette and Frances were trained in all those things considered necessary for a young lady to take her place in society and to run a home successfully. Isabella was very kind to her brother's two daughters. ( Jeanette Oxley never married. She died on the 12th January 1875 and is buried in the South Head Cemetery, Sydney. Her death certificate named John Oxley as her father but her mother is not named.

Jeanette Thorpe
(Oxley) 1813-1875
Eldest daughter of
John Oxley

Frances Thorpe (Oxley) 1815-1891
Daughter of John Oxley
Married William Waugh in 1837
Buried at Tenterfield

William and Frances Waugh had five children Jeannette 1838, Thomas 1841, Isabella 1844, John Oxley 1847, and Alexander William 1850.

The youngest of their children, Alexander, was only four when his father was killed. This left Frances to raise the family, she moved from the Newcastle area to Tenterfield where many of the family descendants still live.

Jeannette did not marry, the details of her life have been researched by Pat Grinter and are detailed below.

Jeanette Waugh 5th February 1838 to 4th September 1921

Jeannette Waugh 1838-1921
Eldest daughter of William & Frances Waugh

Jeannette Waugh the eldest child of William & Frances Waugh was born on 25th. February, 1838 at Nelson's Plains and although her birth certificate says "Jeannette Anne", she was known simply as Jeannette and that was how her will was drawn up.

We assume that she was still at home when her father, William died. In 1870 or thereabouts when Frances and some of the family moved from Nelson's Plains , Jeannette would have been 32 years of age and it is not known for certain if she went to Sunnyside or not at that time.

It is known that following the death in Hobart of Robert Bernard, native of Leith, Scotland, on 27th. September, 1876, she inherited a substantial sum from his estate (Robert Bernard had married Elizabeth Waugh, William's sister) and Jeannette was very generous in sharing this inheritance. We know part of "Laretburn" shows Jeannette as mortgagee and Thomas as mortgagor. For a number of years she ran a Guest House at Blackheath and we were told it was a place where Presbyterian Ministers and their families could holiday. In a book called " Historic Blackheath" on the page headed "Businesses Operating 1903" among the list of Guest Houses was : - " 'Kiora'- Miss Waugh ".In 1907 when Jeannette furnished particulars for Alexander's death certificate ,her address was shown as " Kiora"- Blackheath. If, as her obituary states, she was an invalid for "nearly ten years" she must have gone to "Laretburn" about 1911 or 1912.

The late Lucy Rees wrote " when I was 5 years old I remember her as a small but August little woman with white hair , black dress , beautiful white lace around her throat and a variety of white lace caps. She had independent means and everyone seemed to stand in awe of her". Lucy would have been 5 in 1907

In her will Jeannette left twenty five pounds to the Sustentation Fund of the Presbyterian Church in New South Wales and one hundred pounds each to her sister, Isabella Johnston and Emily Waugh, Thomas' widow- "forgave Isabella Johnston any indebtedness by her to me " - twenty five pounds each to two of Thomas' daughters and to Frances Jeannette Duncan daughter of John Waugh - and fifty pounds to Vivian Thomas Joseph Waugh son of Alexander. The residue of her estate was to be divided equally between John Oxley Waugh and Emily Waugh. In some circles it was thought she was too generous during her lifetime ! and she is supposed to have influenced Frances not to accept any help from "The Oxleys" when her husband was killed.

Jeanette died at "Laretburn" on 4th September, 1921. Following is part of her obituary taken from the Tenterfield Star, 12th. September, 1921 where she is described as a:

" highly esteemed and benevolent lady". ----- The deceased possessed a beautiful disposition, being at all times ready to be friend and help. She was beloved by all who were fortunate enough to come in contact with her. Although an invalid in the last years of her life, her fortitude and gentleness and unselfish manner never deserted her. She died as she lived, a true Christian.

-----The funeral which took place on Monday last was largely attended ----- as it was the last wish of the deceased that her nephews should act as pallbearers, this was acceded to. Messrs. Will, Alex, Bob, Vivian, Gilbert and Gordon Waugh, six fine young Australians and worthy descendants of a worthy family, carried out the duties.

A headstone does not appear to have been erected above her grave.

(By Pat Grinter grand-daughter)

Thomas Waugh 1841-1913
Eldest son of William & Frances Waugh

Thomas Waugh was born at Wighton, Nelsons Plains on 25th April 1841. He was the second child of William and Frances Waugh and he inherited their love for reading and learning. Being the eldest son he assumed a lot of responsibility for the family following the early death of his father. He grew to be a tower of strength for his mother and always had the utmost respect for her and concern for her well being. From the time of his father's death he helped on the property and it is known he was very accomplished in carpentering skills. The Maitland Mercury of 21/3/1867 mentions Thomas for his help with the Raymond Terrace Bachelor's Ball. The report states ----"Mr Thomas Waugh with his usual liberality had his men at work (putting) new flooring on the floor, putting up a retiring room for the fair sex, and refreshment room for the accommodation of visitors-finding timber, materials and labour gratuitously". For this he received a formal acknowledgment in the form of a shield which reads " Presented to Mr T Waugh by the Raymond Terrace Ball Committee 1867 " and is proof that he and some of the family were still at Nelsons Plains in 1867.

When he arrived in the Tenterfield area he was keen to take part in community affairs. It is recorded " As Sunnyside is some distance from Tenterfield a Union Church was erected about 1876 and when that was severely damaged in a gale it was re-erected by Mr T Waugh". He was also employed on Tenterfield Station as foreman of bush workers. He was on the first Committee of the newly established Presbyterian Church in Tenterfield - a prominent and enthusiastic member of the Agricultural Society and an inspector for the Shire Council. Thomas was also a Mason. In 1887 he received a Masonic Lodge Medal featuring Queen Victoria's Golden Jubilee (1837- 1887)

My brother Ian also has this medal. It is recorded that "while marching in the Masonic procession on the occasion of the late Mr R E Walker's funeral in April 1913 he (Thomas) collapsed owing to heart weakness". Thomas was also an active member of the Tenterfield Caledonian Society and for a time a Committee man.

Emily Warley 1855-1948
Wife of Thomas Waugh

On 14th April 1880 he married Emily Warley at Sunnyside. Emily was born on 26th September 1855 to Henry and Mary Warley of Hinton - Nelsons Plains. The families obviously knew each other in that area. Emily's mother died when she was only five and Frances Waugh took a great interest in Emily who became Frances' "help" and she came to "Laretburn" sometime before the marriage. Eight children were born to Thomas & Emily, namely :

William Henry on 31/3/1881

Marion Frances on 29/4/1883

Marguerite Isabelle on 11/3/1885

Thirza Jeanette on 4/10/1887

Frederick Molesworth Johnston
8/4/1890

Infant son on 24/5/1891

Alexander Francis on 19/8/1892

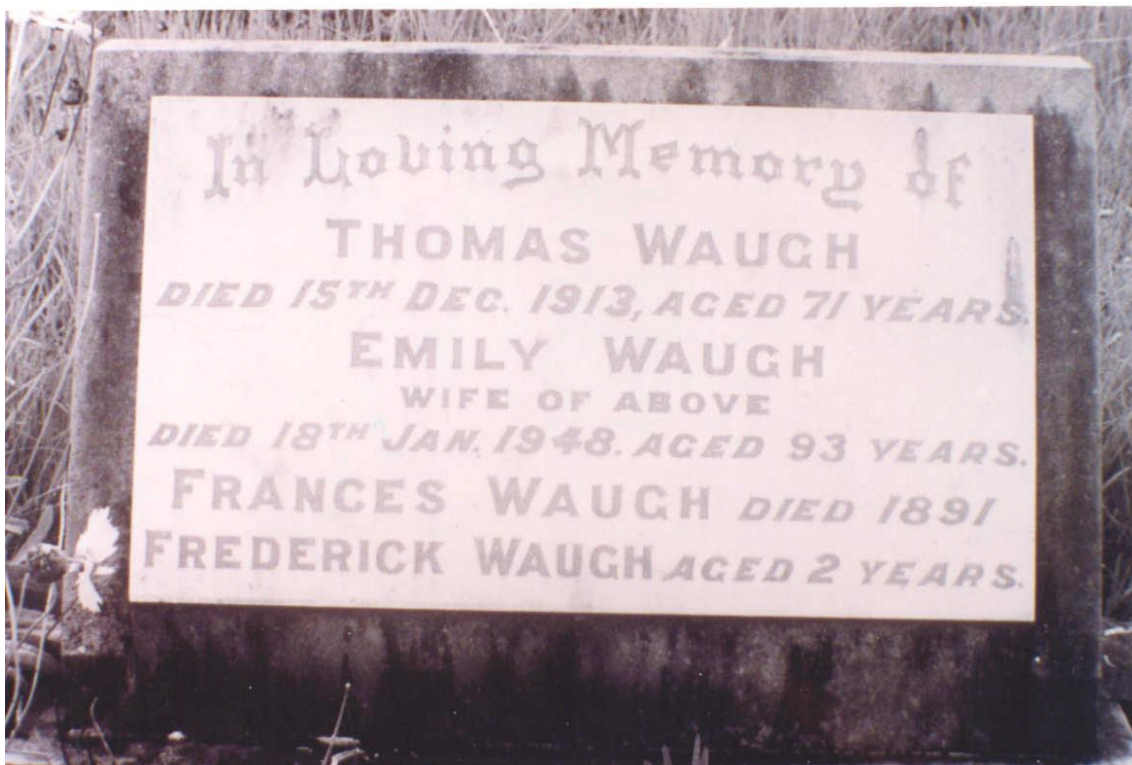

Robert Leslie on 10/5/1896.

Frederick Molesworth died from diphtheria on 18/4/1891 and the infant son two days old died on 26/5/1891 and then in November of the same year Frances died so Thomas & Emily experienced great sadness in 1891. Emily must have been a wonderful manager as other family members would have stayed at "Laretburn" at the time of Frances' death.

I did not know Thomas as he died on 15th. December 1913. His obituary describes him as " ever courteous and unassuming, a staunch friend, a good father, a progressive farmer, it may be said that he had no enemies and that he was one of the stamp of men that any district can ill afford to lose". It also states " he died in the presence of his whole family " and mentions that his two sisters, Mrs. Johnston and Miss Waugh and Mr John Oxley Waugh, a brother, were present. Obituary notice from "The Tenterfield Star" dated 16th September 1913.

My brother Ian records the site of Thomas & Emily's home at "Laretburn" as follows: " A gully ran some thirty yards north of the house with large willow trees providing shade. A foot bridge over the gully led to the wood heap, barn and dairy. There was an oak tree ( acorns) and a pine tree providing edible pine nuts. The house was surrounded with a cottage garden with honeysuckle, wisteria, pear trees, quinces and apricots with an abundance of bird life, finches, wrens, kingfishers, swallows, plovers, magpies and kookaburras. Higher up the gully yabbies were readily caught in rock pools . Gran sliced the fruit, dried pears, quinces, etc. on newspaper on the laundry roof and replenished her pantry. Her grapevines attracted her grandchildren . She also grew pansies, snapdragons, petunias , hollyhocks and jonquils. Bulbs from these jonquils are in the gardens of some of her great grandchildren from Moree to Canberra." He goes on to say " Gran (Emily) was a dear old soul , quite deaf and as children we had to speak directly in her ear. She ran her own Sunday School when 10 of her grandchildren gathered on the verandah in the sun and she was quite unaware of their irreverent chatter." No doubt the parents were pleased of the break while they were preparing the roast dinner before going to Church in the afternoon!

Grave of Thomas & Emily in Tenterfield

Emily was very efficient with the crocheting hook and the tatting shuttle . She could always produce a little gift such as a hankie, cake of soap etc. if we "happened" to mention to her it was our birthday. She had lovely crockery and I especially remember one very fine teaset with violets on it.

At one stage before leaving Sunnyside to live in Sydney with daughters Thirza and Daisy , Gran was very ill and when she recovered she told my mother of "the glorious singing she had heard." She was very fair to all members of her family and after Thomas' death "Laretburn" was still a very welcoming haven for any member of the Waugh family and that in itself has to be a reflection of Emily's nature and also of society at the time. Towards the end of 1937 or early in 1938 when someone questioned the late Lucy Rees' claim to be a descendant of John Oxley, it was to "Laretburn" that Lucy came to sort out her descent and Emily and Daisy could do that. I remember asking my mother who the lady at "Laretburn" was and she told me it was Lucy and she'd come to find out how she was related to John Oxley.

Thomas and Emily Waugh and their family about 1912 at Laretburn.

The invitations for Gilbert Waugh's wedding on 19th June 1919 show that Emily acted as hostess at "Laretburn" for this wedding as sadly Gilbert's mother had died. The group photo taken on this occasion included members of Thomas', John's and Alexander's families.

Earlier, probably in 1916, Vivian Waugh, Thomas' nephew brought his two children Edna and Alexander to live at "Laretburn" with Emily and her family following the death of Viv's wife. Alexander was only three when he went to "Laretburn" and Edna followed shortly after. They stayed there for seven years so that partly explains why Edna kept in touch with Thirza and Bob for so many years. Thomas's sister, Jeanette also spent her declining years at "Laretburn" and she is reported to have been an invalid. During this time Thirza and Daisy were both at home to help their mother, Emily.

Two of Emily's sons William and Alexander enlisted in the 1914-18 war and both went to Egypt and then to France and were overseas for almost 3 ½ years and away from "Laretburn" for almost 4 years - their leaving had a great impact on the women folk. Robert, Emily's youngest son carried on the property during his brothers' absence.

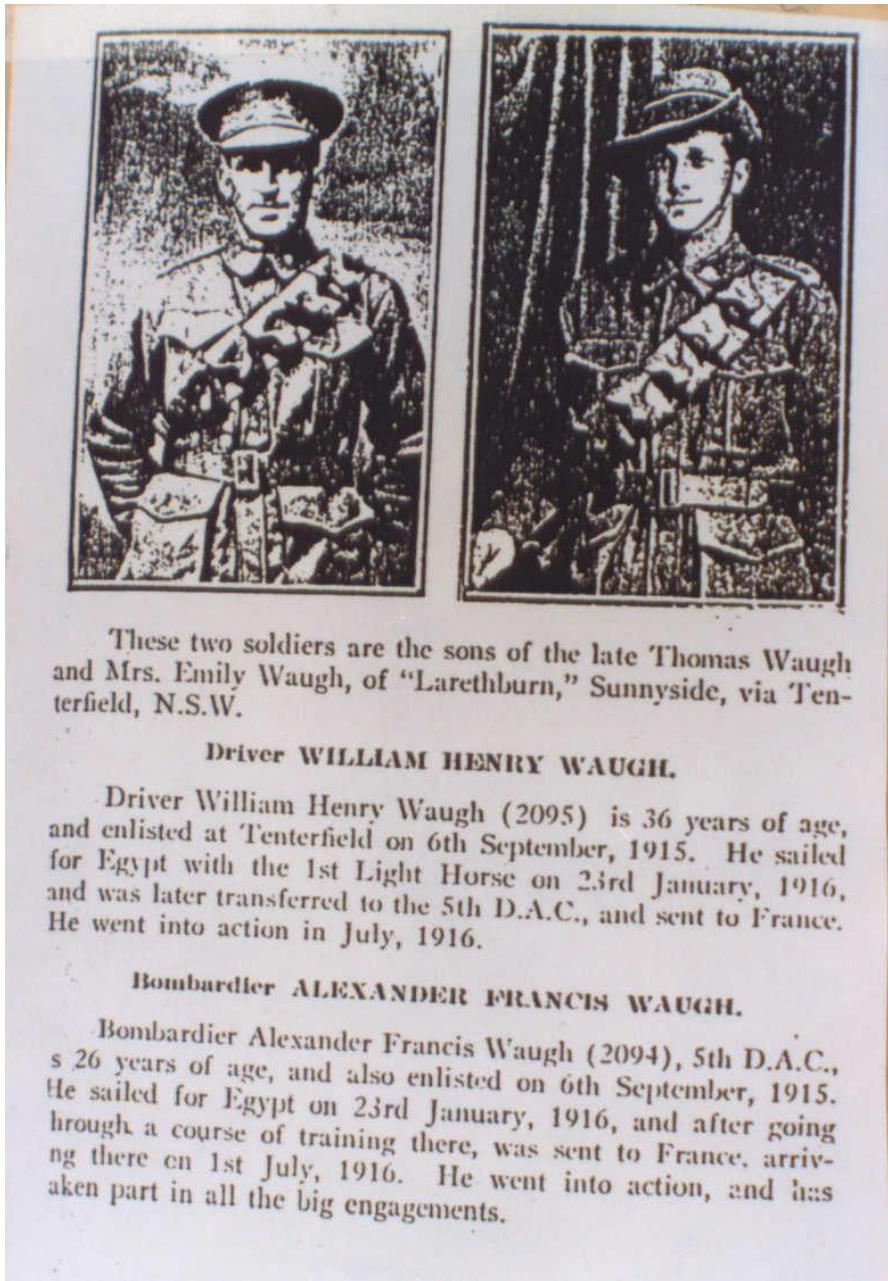

Emily lived on at "Laretburn" surrounded by many of her family until about 1940-41 when she and Daisy left for Sydney to help Thirza who was ill. Emily died at Ramsgate on 18th January 1948. Her body was brought back to Tenterfield and she was buried in the family grave in the Tenterfield cemetery. A report in the "Presbyterian" reads in part:

"By the death of Mrs Emily Waugh, at the age of 93 years the Church has lost the last of the founders of Tenterfield charge ----- Tenterfield has had many ups and downs but each minister found loyalty and friendship at "Laretburn".

JOHN OXLEY WAUGH 1847-1926

John Oxley Waugh 1847-1926
Son of William & Frances Waugh

Mr. John Oxley Waugh who died yesterday at the ripe old age of 78 years, was one of the fine group of stalwarts whom the late Mr. W.H. Walker found on the payroll of Tenterfield Station, brought from Glenlyon, when he took over from Messrs Simpson and Readett some 47 years ago, quite a number of whom are yet alive, men of the pioneering type for whom no task was too stiff and no day too long. Mr. Waugh was born at or about Raymond Terrace, and was a grandson of the famous surveyor and explorer, Sir John Oxley, whose discovery of the Brisbane River was celebrated by its first centenary a couple of years ago. He was never at fault among stock, His word was his bond, and in all relations of life he was "as straight as they were made." Mr Waugh lived for many years at "Six Mile", Sunnyside, from where he looked after the Northern portion of the cattle run, the late Mr George

Kermode being for ten years or so the overseer over that department, and Mr Waugh's two brothers. Stockmen being Messrs, Phillip Hurtz and Willie Morgan. After the station subdivision Mr Waugh settled on a property at Mt. Mackenzie, and as time went on was seen less and less around the township. He fought a good rearguard action against failing health and complained little. He was ill for about seven weeks, and bore his sufferings very patiently. There are three sons and four daughters who survive. The sons are Messers. John (Daymar, Q.), Gilbert (Bluff Rock), and Gordon (Mt Mackenzie). The daughters are Mesdames Duncan (Kelly's Gully), Hooper (Brisbane), Murphy (Roma), and Williams (Woodside) His wife, and daughter, Mary Dunn (Sydney), predeceased him.

The remains were laid to rest this afternoon in the Presbyterian Cemetery Tenterfield, the Rev W.F. Paul officiating at the grave side.

The Late John Oxley Waugh

(By J.B.O.Waugh)

The late John Oxley Waugh was born at Nelson's Plains, Raymond Terrace on the 29th November 1847 and was the grandson of John Oxley Surveyor-General, explorer and a member of the first Legislative Council.

At the age of 16 he went to Bonshaw with Milton Blane. Murdoch Campbell was then the manager for keys and Hetherington. Wallace McDougall owned Texas station, and Bruce McDougall owned Gunyan station. At the time the blacks were troublesome and he could tell some great tales of how some of the places got their names. In company With Jack Stapylton he drove bullock drays laden with "Mendoe" wool to Ipswich. Horses were also taken there for sale and the cattle driven overland to Sydney. on getting married he settled at the top station "Maiden head" and later was one of the first to start in tin-mining at "The Gulf". Disposing of his mining interests he bought a property at Sunnyside and Engaged in wheat farming, but owing to wet seasons this was a failure. It was then he became a stockman on Tenterfield station.

W.H.Walker then being the manager and Kermode relinquished his position and a few years later he was appointed as overseer. As a stockman he had few equals and the quality of Tenterfield station was known far and wide. His death severs a link with the old cattle stations and it will also bring to the minds of old hands many pleasant memories of station life. Philip Hurtz, Tom Nicholls, Jack O'Connor, Christy Marstella, and Harry Reading were some of the stockmen and what tales they told around campfires when mustering or branding at the Bluff, "Blackfellows Gully", Boonoo Boonoo, or Bookookoorara and what a great reader J.O.W was and many a boot was thrown at the candle by midnight by some light sleeper. I can still hear his familiar voice at 4 a.m in the winter time, "now then boys time to feed the horses." And Peter Wilkie with his staff of farmers, Dick Wellnigh in charge of the butchering business, Joe Nicholas and Bob Campbell as teamsters, Bill (otherwise York) Ferguson as hut cook and Billy Cuff as stockman's cook. And the beautiful jumping horses, from Best Girl to Lady Laura and Fritz with there respective trainers, Harry Reading and Jim Harrop. And the great support of the Walker and White families to the Tenterfield and other shows, and the keen but friendly rivalry in the fat cattle section, with beast's bearing the familiar SAD and ELI brands. And the cattle dogs, noted canines such as Larry, Spot, and Barney: what wonderful intelligence they had. And the interest all station employees took in their respective duties, and never had an unpleasant word to each other. Those were the days which he was never tired of telling. And lastly the grandeur of the homestead and surrounding with the magnificent garden and carriages, and Sam Reboras as coachman.

The passing of the Tenterfield station with which he had been associated for 28 years was like the passing of an old friend.

His declining years were spent on his property at Mt.Mackenzie, with always a kind thought for everyone, one who never wished for personal gain, and respected by all. And many will be sad to hear of his passing away.

Isabella Johnston Waugh 1844-1927

From information supplied by Isabella's great grand-daughter Joan Lamb.

Isabel Johnston Waugh married Thomas Danvers Johnston. They had eight children and lived on their farm on the Manning River and later on the Macleay River. They were buried at Dorrigo.

Isabella and Thomas were married on the 25th of August 1862 at "Balicherra" the house where her mother Frances was living. Her father, William had died (murdered in Newcastle) in 1854. After their marriage they went to live at "Cowarrol" Ellinborough on the Hastings River. It was here that at 19 years of age Isabella gave birth to twin boys, Herbert and Percy. She had two more sons, George and Walter there before they moved to Clybucca, probably in 1868..

 I checked this with the Australian Registry.*

The following section on the family of Isabella Johnston Waugh (1844-1927) is selective and only includes a small portion of this line (this is the case in most of the lines we are following and to do justice each one of these lines could be a book in itself) there are some interesting things in this section. One is the number of photos the children of Isabella and Thomas Johnston. The other is the confusion that can be created with names and relationships. I initially found it confusing that Isabella should have a middle name (Johnston) the same as the surname of the man she married, Thomas Johnston (and I suspect he is related to the Johnstons further back in the Waugh family history in Scotland, which no doubt is where Isabella's middle name came from).

Isabella Johnston Waugh 1844-1927

It is with this line of the family that we also get doubly related lines forming. Two daughters of Isabella and Thomas, Nellie (1873) and Jeanette (1878) marry Will and James Waugh respectively. Will Waugh was a son of "Aussie" Alexander Waugh and James a Grandson of "Aussie" Alexander Waugh. The descendants of these lines (Olssons and Rees lines) are covered in the "Aussie" Alexander section of this book that follows.

The following pages of photos are of the family of Isabella and Thomas. There is no photo of their 4th child Walter. He married Sarah Hughes, they did not have any children. He is buried at Tweed Heads.

Couple a living reminder of our valley's history

By SHANI KEANE

A former Macleay couple who are a living reminder of the Valley's past, have stunned friends and relatives by celebrating their 70th wedding anniversary.

Ninety-six year-old Victor Ivan Waugh Johnston and his 90-year-old wife, Ethel Agnes Victoria clocked up 70 years together on July 16.

All of their seven children were present at their anniversary celebration held at Lake Eacham Hotel, Youngerburra on the Atherton Tableland.

Besides their seven children, Victor and Ethel have 28 grandchildren, 45 great grandchildren and two great, great grandchildren.

Victor and Ethel were both born last century and grew up around the Macleay where they still have lots of relations. Six of their seven children were born in Kempsey, Frederickton and Wauchope.

Victor was born in 1892 at Clybucca and Ethel was born in 1899 at Kempsey. The couple took their vows on July 16, 1919 at Tamban.

The couple's link with the Macleay Valley is truly historical.

Victor is the only surviving son of Herbert and Emily Johnston (nee Lynn) of Kempsey. At the age of 13, he had his own bulluck team and was helping his father work on the railways.

Ethel is the only surviving member of her family. Her three brothers included Earl Frederick Cooper who died in France in 1918 after spending more than four years serving his country; Stan, who died in March, 1989 at Sydney; and Roy, who died in 1979 at Kempsey.

Their parents were Frederick and Catherine Cooper (nee Jones) of Frederickton.

After moving around the district wherever work took them, Victor decided to join his brothers in 1934 on the Atherton Tableland where there was a timber boom.

Their journey to Queensland was incredible. Victor and Ethel with six children travelled overland in their 1928 Tourer car.

They left Eungai on about March 1 and arrived at their destination on March 17. A trip that now only takes 48 hours took the Johnston family more than two weeks.

In July that year, the family set out for their final destination which took two days, the last 13 miles being towed by a bullock team. This trip now takes less than 20 minutes.

Victor worked in timber while Ethel and the children worked in dairy farming. The grand old couple retired to Tolga in 1951.

This interesting article from the Macleay Argus 3/8/89 is about Vic Johnston son of Herbert Johnston. Joan Lamb who provided the photos and information for much of this section of the book is in the centre of the back row.

DON (BRONCO) JOHNSON, a legend in Queensland boxing, shows his son Glenn Press cuttings of some of his famous fights.

RING HERO NOW MT. ISA MINER

MT. ISA. — Don (Broncho) Johnson, whose flaying haymaker punches in the ring drew thousands to the fight game in the 1950's is working underground these days at Mt. Isa Mines.

He is now 40, the father of 10 children. His fortunes of the big-time fights have slipped away.

Don's most obvious legacy of the fights that packed Brisbane, Sydney and Melbourne stadiums, is a broken nose flattened across his face, cauliflower ears, and a premature aging.

The trim middleweight figure has become flabby, but Broncho's thick black moustache and black curls, his trademark, are still there.

He says he has no money left from the rich purses. A well-filled scrapbook and memories of the "big-time" is all that's left.

The Johnson family live in three caravans on the outskirts of Mt. Isa. Broncho says he prefers the freedom of the caravans.

Unlucky

Broncho was on the road to fight fame at 20. He collected the Golden Gloves but just missed out on the Empire Games trip to Auckland by a stroke of misfortune — an attack of tonsillitis.

So he decided to turn pro. "Out of 60 to 70 pro fights, I reckon I won more than half, so I suppose I didn't do too badly."

His first fight against Tommy Burns in November, 1951, brought him £1750. It is still remembered as one of the biggest bloodbaths seen at Sydney Stadium.

"I thought Burns was a bit of a lair because he had been trying to go to Hollywood. I thought to myself I'll knock the lair out of him.

"When we got in there he really changed my mind. I found out he wasn't a lair, but a good fighter.

"Since I hung up my gloves we've drifted around.

"I retired to the bush and bought a dairy farm on the Atherton Tableland. But it didn't work out. The weeds grew faster than the grass.

"Anyway, I haven't got a business mind. They say life begins at 40, but I reckon they must mean a different sort of life somehow," he added with a grin.

With a bit of luck the name Johnson could be back in the fight limelight in the next few years.

One of Broncho's sons, Robert, 14, looks like carrying on his dad's name.

Last year he got as far as the State schoolboys final.

Bronco Johnston was born in 1928 the son of Lancelot. Bronco made quite a reputation as a boxer in the 1950s. He now lives on the Atherton Tablelands.

Alexander William Waugh 1850-1907

The youngest child of ‘Aussie’ William Waugh, Alexander was a mining engineer and worked in the Newcastle area. He married Eliza Dargue in 1878. Eliza ran a maternity ‘hospital’ in Grafton and apparently Alexander spent a lot of his time travelling between places where he worked and Grafton. It was while making one of these trips that he caught pneumonia and consequently, as his death certificate indicates died of heart failure.

Alexander Waugh 1850-1907
Son of William & Frances Waugh

Alexander and Eliza had 5 children: Vivian, Mary and Sarah Ann, twins where born in 1882, Sarah Ann born 1884 and Elsie. Mary and Sarah the twins were nor expected to live and the doctor who came ‘‘after’’ their birth said neither would survive and on his return to town ordered and had two coffins sent out for them. His prediction was only half correct and fortunately for me, Mary, my grandmother survived.

ISSUED AT SYDNEY, 4TH FEBRUARY, 1984.

To have Inelchi.

For Alexander.

Many in the Alexander 1850-1907 line of the Waugh family virtually became “lost” from the wider family due to disagreement. Mary married a Catholic and her family decided she could “go her own way” and had little contact there after. In any case her father died just two years after she was married in 1905. There was very little family tradition or information about the “Waugh” line available. For many years it was thought we were related to John Oxley, but no one knew how. How things have changed.

The Family of Alexander & Eliza Waugh

Vivian Thomas Joseph Waugh 1879-1965

The eldest Vivian was born in Grafton and was married in 1908 to Elsie Ford. In 1917 Elsie died following an operation leaving Vivian with his two children Edna and Alex, who were just eight and three years old at the time. Vivian took Alex to his brother Thomas and his wife Emily at "Laretburn" near Tenterfield for them to look after him. A year later Edna followed and the two children stayed with their Uncle and Aunty for seven years. They went to school at Sunnybank and Edna attended high school in Tenterfield, boarding in town and going home to "Laretburn" on weekends.

Vivian Thomas Joseph Waugh 1879-1965
Son of Alexander Waugh 1850-1907

Alexander William Waugh died (WW2)1945
Grandson of Alexander Waugh 1850-1907

In 1925 Vivian took the children to Sydney to live. Edna stayed with her mother's sister at Manly. Alex lived with Vivian nearby. Alex attended North Sydney High and became an accountant working for Burns Philip in New Guinea. He married Joya ??? and his only child Michael was born after Alex died in a bomber over Germany on 11/3/45.

Edna married Ernie Dickson and had twin boys Colin and Wayne and a daughter Lynne. Edna lives in Canberra. Her sons have families of their own. Colin one of the twins had a twins himself Scott and Matthew born 1978 and a daughter Michelle born 1982. Wayne also has three children Benjamin 1976, Terry 1978 and Kathryn 1980.

Elsie Waugh 1886-1958

Elsie married Sam Ellis and had three children Dolly 1908, Bob 1912 and Jack. Dolly married Jack Hay and with her family lives at Coutts Crossing near Grafton.

Dolly Ellis and Jack Maloney.
Grand children of Alexander Waugh 1850-1907

Sarah Ann 1882 & Sarah 1884

Both these children had the same name and both died within a short time of birth.

Mary Waugh 1882-1948

In Grafton on 15th March 1905, Mary Jeanette Waugh married John Maloney. The couple went on to have a family of 8 children, seven daughters and one son. All the daughters were born at a nursing hospital at South Grafton run by Eliza Waugh, the children's grandmother. John continued to work in the Grafton area including Eatonsville, Southampton and Clarena.

In 1919/20 the young family moved to Bangalow/ Knockrow area where they were share farming on Rice's dairy.

John was a hard worker despite suffering from rheumatic fever on a number of occasions and it was this illness to which he succumbed on 25th May 1922 at the relatively young age of 47. He is buried at the Ballina Cemetery.

As was typical of our early settlers, Mary continued to work as a sharefarmer in the Tweed area to support her family. She moved into Murwillumbah from Eungella in 1937 and lived in a house on the corner of Brisbane and Condong Streets (the bowling club is now situated there). Her son, Jack, lived with her for sometime until he joined the army during the second world war.

Mary worked as a cleaner at the Murwillumbah High School until she turned 60 when she retired. She passed away on 5th April 1948 aged 65.
